Who We Are: Christian Record Services is an official ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America and was founded in 1899 by Austin O. Wilson, so more people who were blind like himself could learn of God's love for them.

What We Do: Christian Record Service's mission is to empower people who are blind to engage their communities and embrace the Blessed Hope.

The ministry offers an array of free services and programs:

- Free Bibles in large print, braille, and audio formats
- A correspondence Bible school, with lessons in large print and braille
- Anne Lowe Scholarships awarded annually
- Books and magazines in audio, large print, and braille
- The Naomi Chapman Turner Library, which maintains more than 2,000 inspiring books and resources
- National Camps for Blind Children, operating in partnership with camp locations across the United States to provide confidence-building adventures in nature. More information at www.BlindCamps.org
- PhoneFaith, offering daily dial-in presentations that strive to inform, encourage, and inspire the mind, body, and spirit through mental health and wellness sessions, social meet-and-greet interactions, Bible games, and prayer time.
