About Christian Record Services

Christian Record Services, Inc. is a ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, serving people worldwide of all faiths and walks of life who are blind or have low vision.

Austin O. Wilson started the organization in 1899 when he produced a Christian braille magazine, the Christian Record, with a hand-operated clothes wringer he modified to accommodate two metal braille plates.

CRS is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization making your donations tax-deductible.

As a 100% donor-supported ministry, CRS relies entirely on the generosity of individuals and organizations to keep all its resources and programs completely free. For 125 years, these contributions have fueled our mission, funding everything from braille and audio magazines to our lending library and National Camps for Blind Children. Every tax-deductible gift, regardless of size, is a vital partnership that directly empowers people who are blind to engage with their communities and embrace a life of hope and spiritual growth.
