

CHRISTIAN RECORD

SERVICES FOR THE BLIND

Our Mission

Together, we value the blind and low-vision community and are committed to enriching their life journeys through free inspirational, educational, and informational resources and experiences.

Who We Are

Christian Record Services is an official ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America. Founded in 1899 by Austin O. Wilson, the organization began so more people who were blind or had low vision could learn of God's love and receive accessible Christian resources.

What We Do

Christian Record Services provides free, accessible resources, programs, and experiences for people who are blind or have low vision. These are designed to inspire, educate, inform, encourage connection, and enrich each person's life journey.

- Bibles are provided in large-print, braille, and audio formats.
- Bible study lessons, through a correspondence Bible school, are available in large print and braille.
- Anne Lowe Scholarships are awarded annually to eligible students pursuing higher education.
- Books and magazines are provided in audio, large-print, and braille formats.
- The Naomi Chapman Turner Library offers more than 2,000 inspiring books and resources.
- National Camps for Blind Children and Adults, in partnership with camp locations across the United States, provides confidence-building adventures, connection, and experiences in nature. Learn more at www.BlindCamps.org.
- PhoneFaith connects blind and low-vision adults daily by phone for fellowship, health seminars, and spiritual encouragement. Learn more at www.PhoneFaith.org or call 209-399-9465.

Membership

Christian Record Services, located in Lincoln, Nebraska, serves over 17,000 members throughout the world. Membership, services, and programs are free to eligible individuals who are blind, have low vision, or cannot hold or focus on standard-sized ink print.
